Burned—Havemeyer and Wife Unhurt.

(Special to The Evening World.)
DENVER, Colo., Oct. 4.—H. O. Hameymer, the sugar king, and members of his party were near death yesterday in an explosion of dynamite in the fifth level of the Portland Mine at Cripple Creek.

They were exploring the property and went into a chamber of the mine where miners had set a blast and retired to await the explosion.

Mr. Hameymer and his wife escaped injury, being further away than others. W. R. Thomas, a Boston multi-millionaire, was the most seriously injured. The right side of his face was burned.

Miss Agnesida Hameymer was injured by a flying rock. Miss Helen Thomas and Miss E. Hameymer were knocked down by the shock. Miss Marguerite Thomas and Horace Hameymer es-

TAMMANY SIDE STEPS

MR. JEROME

At the Executive Committee meeting his afternoon Tammany aide stepped Jerome.

It was decided not to discuss any candidate for the District Attorney office at to-day's meeting, but to leave the matter over until next week.

Patrick Molloy was practically decided on as candidate for the President of the Board of Aldermen.

It was reported that former Senator Thomas T. Sullivan would be named for the Court of General Sessions to succeed Judge Newburgh, who is to be

The candidates for supreme court will be Justice Newburger and Ingram, and Corporation Counsel Delaney.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 4.—Theodore Roosevelt, jr., is rapidly becoming one of the best of the hundred freshmen who are trying to land position on the Harvard first-year football team. On the gridiron young Roosevelt's play is strenuous. He falls on the ball with an earnestness that warms the heart of the freshman coach. He is trying for end, and the coaches who have watched him say that he stands a fair chance of getting the position.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, NEW YORK Oct. 4.—Columbian football rooters are beginning to realize that the Blue and White team will have a hard vocation to hoe this season and that vic-

There will be few odd fads between; therefore they were on hand this afternoon to see how Columbia could win the first prize. The contest was not very easy. Seton Hall College, East Rutherford, N. J., furnished the party of the second part for the delegation of the Harlemites. And while the Jerseyites made a gallant struggle, they were out-

Capt. Tom Thorpe, whose ineptibility has taken away Columbia's mainstay in the line, was on the side lines with Coach Morley to take quick notice of any poor work on the part of his men.

RESULTS AT WINDSOR.

WINDSOR RACE TRACK, Oct. 4.—The races here to-day resulted as follows:

FIRST RACE—Four-year-olds; seven furlongs.—Lady Lou, 108 lbs., won easily by three lengths from Daisy Dean, 107 lbs.; Levey, 106 lbs., third; Lida Vivian, 105 lbs., fourth.

On receiving end after kick-off. Columbia caught the ball on her 5-yard line and was downed after an advance of 25 yards. Columbia punted to the 40-yard line and after exchange of kicks followed. On fumble, the Blue and White secured the ball on Seton Hall's 25-yard line. After a short gain Columbia lost on a fumble.

The section Hall by a cake kick brought down the first half. The time was set at 10 minutes. The second half was settled down by and by straight-line jumping, especially carried it over for a score. Score at the end of the first half, 6-0.

SECON HALL. Kick-off by Seaton Hall's forward line, and the Javanese warriors of the kick to the centre. Time taken for the first half was called with the call in Columbus' presence.

Score at the end of the first half, 6-0.
